MORNING

Airport Arrival
Traditional Kanak welcome and transfer to Anse Vata Bay.

Amazing Race
Group activities around Anse Vata Bay and/or Nouméa, having fun whilst becoming familiar with the local area, culture and people.

A Taste of France
Gourmet adventure encapsulating an abundance of food & wine - starting with the local colourful produce market, followed by French chocolatier, French patisserie and funky wine bar to savour the delicious wines and cheeses.

Sailing Regatta
Take a fleet of catamarans (or just one!) on a picturesque sailing adventure to one of the wonderful secluded islands around Nouméa. Have your own private beach party and loads of exciting activities to fill the day, sumptuous food, wine and music.

Depart

AFTERNOON

Duck Island
5-minute water taxi to the island for lunch followed by snorkeling, paddle boarding, jet ski, beach activities.

French Cooking School
Make a sumptuous French lunch coupled with some fine French Rose before a jam-packed afternoon of fun.

and

Jet ski or jetboat around the bay
Why not transfer everyone on the segways to inject some more adrenaline into the afternoon.

A Day in the Life - Traditional Kanak Culture including a visit to the renowned Tjibaou Cultural Centre and some fun cultural activities - weaving, wood carving etc.

or

Canopy Zipline
Zipline through the Caledonian forest only 45 minutes outside Nouméa - great for team building.

Deep South
Head just over an hour outside Nouméa for a day of inland adventure and activities with a difference - quad bikes, rally driving, electric bikes, kayak through the 'drowned forest' in the Blue River National Park, visit Madeleine Falls. The day can also include a visit to a local Kanak village for lunch and activities.

or

Isle of Pines
Fly 20 minutes to the picturesque Isle of Pines and fly back in the afternoon for a fun-filled day of group activities and snorkeling like nowhere else in the world.
